That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.
The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.
A booklet of extracts from eminent, medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE DAYS AND HOURS

ORIGIN OF OUR SYSTEM OF THE DIVISION OF TIME.

It Was Devised by the Babylonians, Who Were a Very Clever People, Was Adopted by the Greeks and Has Survived Through All Changes.

If you pull your watch out of your pocket you will have in your hand one of the most wonderful pieces of machinery ever constructed. Think how it works throughout the day and night and how it keeps it up year in, year out. Think how the second hand points to 3,600 divisions of time during every hour. It never sleeps.

If it is like the average watch, it will be built up of no fewer than 175 different pieces. These pieces will have passed through more than 2,400 separate operations, each being a distinct form of manufacture.

The fourth jewel wheel screw is so very small that it is almost invisible. To the naked eye it appears to be but a speck of dust. When examined under a magnifying glass it will be seen to be a perfect screw, having 260 threads to the inch, each thread being well cut. Actually the diameter of this screw is so little as the four one-thousandth part of an inch, and it would take no less a number than 100,000 similar screws in order to fill an ordinary thimble as used by the ladies.

Each screw has a double head and has to be hardened. After the hardening process the screws are arranged in frames, being placed in with the heads upward. This delicate operation is done by the sense of touch alone instead of by sight, and great rapidity marks the skillful operator. Somewhere about a hundred screws are placed in each frame, and the frames are attached to a machine which polishes the heads of the screws 10,000 at a time.

It will be seen how marvelous these screws are, yet one of them forms but one tiny piece of a watch. Still, this will show the remarkable nature of that everyday article. When special watches are considered there is indeed room for wonder.

For instance, take the watch which was presented to Catherine I. on her coronation as empress of Russia. This watch was one of the most remarkably constructed instruments ever made.

On the opposite side of the works of this extraordinary timekeeper there was an exact representation of the holy sepulcher, with a carved image of the Roman guard stationed outside it. As soon as the watch case was opened the imitation rocks would roll away from the mouth of the sepulcher, the soldier would kneel, angels would appear at opposite sides of the opening, and sweet strains of music would be heard. This remarkable watch took nine years' uninterrupted labor in order to construct.

The first clock in any way resembling those in use at present was made by Henry Vick in the year 1370, and it was made for Charles V. of France. This monarch was surnamed the Wise, but his education was imperfect in many respects, and he knew it well. As a result he was very obstinate in his claim to know everything. He showed this obstinacy when Vick brought the new timepiece for his approval. The king could not find any fault with its working, so he criticised the figures on the dial.

He told the maker that he had made a grievous error, as the figures to denote the hour of 4 should be four I's. Poor Vick ventured to tell the king that he was wrong. "I am never wrong!" thundered the irate monarch. "Take the clock away and correct the mistake at once upon pain of my displeasure!"

Vick had to do as he was told, with the result that all our timepieces have the fourth hour labeled IIII instead of IV, as should be the case if the correct numeration were followed.

How many people have the slightest notion why sixty seconds make a minute and why the hour is divided into sixty minutes, and so on? Why are there not ten hours to the day and ten to the night?

The reason is very simple. It is because the people of Babylon reckoned not only by a decimal system of notation, but also by a sexagesimal system. That is to say, they not only reckoned by tens, but also by sixties. The Babylonians were very clever people, and they saw that the decimal system was by no means the best.

They knew that no number had so many divisors as has sixty.

How about the division of the day into hours? The Babylonians began by comparing the progress made by the sun on its daily journey to the distance covered by a good walker, this being done at the time of the equinox. The astronomers divided the sun's journey into twenty-four parsangs, whence our hours.

The Babylonian system was adopted by the Greeks. It is one of the most remarkable facts of history that the system has survived through every change made since the days of Babylonia. When the the French revolutionized all weights and measures, going so far as to alter the days of the week, still they left the old system of notation so far as regarded the reckoning of the flight of time. Even our own lovers of the decimal notation do not suggest that the old sexagesimal method of reckoning time should be altered. —Pearson's Weekly.

Torture by Savages.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject thir ceaptives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the kidneys," says W. M. Sherman of Cuching, Me., "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disorders and malaria, and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by P. A. Ryan, druggist. Price 50c.

LITTLE POCKET PHYSICIAN
Hyomei Inhaler that is Guaranteed by A. D. Walsh to Cure Catarrh.

Thousands who have been cured by Hoyomei, call the inhaler that comes with every outfit "The little pocket physician," as it is so small that it can be carried in the pocket or purse.

Prior to the discovery of Hyomei, statistics showed that at least 97 out of every 100 persons in this state were suffering from catarrh in some form. The remarkable results following the use of Hyomei are shown by the smaller percentage today of people usffering from catarrh.

There is rarely no excuse whatever for anyone having catarrh now that Hyomei is so readily obtainable. If you have any doubts about its value, A. D. Walsh will let you have a complete outfit with the understanding that unless it cures catarrh, it will not cost you a cent.

A complete Hyomei outfit consists of "the little pocket physician," a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei, and costs only $1, while additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50 cents, making it the most economical, as well a sthe most reliable treatment for the cure of catarrh.

Do not delay longer the use of Hyomei, if you have catarrh. This is a purely local disease, and Hyomei goes right to the spot where the catarrh germs are present, destroys them, soothes and heals all inflammation, and makes a permanent and lasting cure.

CITY COUNCIL.

The city council held an important meeting Monday evening. The principal business transacted was to order published a notice for a sale of a spur track franchise.

When bids were opened for macadamizing Arguello, Fourteenth and Philips streets it was found that only two estimates had been presented, those of H. D. McGarvey and Arnold Hess, who bid 6 cts per square foot and the Sequoia Rock Company, by George Kreiss who bid 5 85-100 cts per square foot.

On motion the contract was awarded to the latter.

Chester A. Lovie, representing the Western Salt Company, requested that the application of that corporation for a privilege to construct a spur track from the Southern Pacific Company's right of way along Chestnut street to the Salt Works be withdrawn.

The request was granted and E. F. Fitzpatrick, representing the Stauffer Company, made an application for a franchise to construct and maintain a spur track for shipping freight over the same ground.

The application was accepted and notice offering the franchise for sale ordered published.

An ordiance was introduced establishing the grades of the following streets and avenues: Harrison street, Jefferson street, Jackson street, Madison street,Monroe street, Vera avenue, Lincoln street,Roosevelt avenue, Oak avenue,Redwood avenue, Adams street Blaine street,Cleviand street, Davis and Wood streets.

Geo. H. Gervin presented a communication suggesting that the street called the "County Road" be changed to another name in keeping with that locality through which it passed. The communication was ordered filed.

Geo. C. Ross presented a map of Wellelsey Park by which the streets of a portion of the tract are dedicated to public use. The matter will come up for acceptance at the rgeular meeting Monday evening, next.

The hall directors held a very important meeting last Friday evening. The old board was re-elected after a hot contest for every office. The new floor is to be put down as soon as arrangements can be made to that effect.

The dance last Saturday evening was a successful one. Woodside is a growing every day and full of enterprising people and certainlyneeds a larger hall. Such a movement on the part of the directors would meet the popular approval of everyone and all would be willing to lend a helping hand. Minor improvements are to be made but the main question of enlarging the hall seems to be as far away as ever. If there are any improvements to be made on the hall the first should be to enlarge it and the flooring and other small matters could be attended to after that. The dances in Woodside are noted all over but the one great complaint is always failure. Dances during Lent have never proved very popular in this village and the movement should be discouraged to every extent.

The terms of Chase Littlejohn and William Havey expire and these gentlemen will be candidates for re-election. Both have made splendid officers and will have a large fillowing. It is understood that C. J. Hynding and Arnold Hess have aspirations to be trustees and will also be candidates They are substantial citizens and would, if elected, make good officials. Frank Towne, who has been treasurer for several years past will have no opposition for re-election, neither will town Clerk D. R. Several citizens who had witnessed the affair came near lynching Velasco. He was severely beaten and presented a pitable sight when brought to the jail here.

Flemming is an expoliceman having served in the San Francisco police department for seventeen years. For four years he has been conducting a saloon in the San Pedro valley. Mori began business only two months ago and hence his light sentence.

Work Will Soon Begin.

Vice-President Chapin of the Peninsular Railroad Company was in Palo Alto Saturday, says the Palo Altan, and stated that the work on the proposed line back of the University would soon begin. The right of way has been secured along the entire route southwest of Palo Alto and material is on the way for grading and track laying. ### HIS FIRST CALL.

When a young man has been invited to the house, the front door is industriously dusted half an hour before his arrival. The small childrne are given strict orders to play inthe kitchen and not go near the parlor. The girl begins fixing up as soon as she has finished supper, and, in order to give herself all the time possible for this task, she eats but little and leaves the table before any one else. When the doorbell rings every one scurries and the girl floats to the door, bids him enter, takes his hat and hangs up his overcoat. Once in the front room, the young man is placed on exhibition. One by one the older members of the family drop in to size up the chap, and she is looked over carefully as though he were a horse the family intended to buy. If his impression is favorable, the family begin warming to him. While the jury is taking stock of the young man the girl is in suspense and on pins and needles, wondering what the verdict will be. After he has departed the girl douses the light in the front room, enters the sitting room, and, in an expectant and freightened manner asks: "Well, what do you think of him?" And the young man? He has had as uncomfortable an exening as the girl.

CORONER CROWE ANGRY.

Last Sunday a young Englishman, named R. L. King, fell to his death from the cliff near Pikes' camp at Point Pedro on the line of the Ocean Shore Railroad. He had been employed by the Ransom Construction Company as a laborer and while working fell over the high cliff to the waters below. Nothing more was seen of him after he fell.

Coroner James Crowe was not notified of the fatality until yesterday. All he knew about the case is what he had seen in the city papers.

Book-keeper John Muir of the Ransom Construction Company, by which King was employed, stated yesterday that he wrote to the coroner the day of King's death. If the letter was posted, it did not reach the coroner until yesterday morning.

Coroner Crowe is inclined to be angry at the manner in which he and his office have been slighted by the Ransom Construction Company people The law requires that when a person meets a violent end, as was the fate of young King, the coroner shall be notified immediately, and the effects of the deceased shall be turned over to him. Point Pedro is not so far from Colma that the manager of the camp could not have sent a messenge to town to inform Deputy Cunningham of the accident.

Cunningham will today take charge of the papers and effects of King and will notify the young man's relatives of his death.

Mr. Crowe sent his deputy, Claude Fox, to the scene of the accident early yesterday morning.

The following is the letter received by Mr. Crowe yesterday from the Ransom Construction Company notifying him of King's death:

Colma, Cal., March 11.

Coroner San Mateo County,

San Mateo.

Sir: We beg to report the loss of one, R. L. King, laborer, over the cliff near Green Canyon on the line of the Ocean Shore Railway. After falling over the cliff into the water nothing more was seen of him.

Yours respectfully.

RANSOME CONSTRUCTION CO

John Muir.

Deputy Coroner Claude Fox returned last evening from the scene of the accident. He made a thorough investigation and could find no trace of the body. He is of the opinion that it was washed out to sea and will never be recovered.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

"Ah, Paddy dear, and did you hear the news that's goin' round?" said Dan Ahearn, from Kerry, to a lad of his own town. "March seventeenth but four weeks off—and, whisper now you'll scream—they've grown a new carnation, and the color it is green!

"Just picture, please, St. Patrick's Day—the marchin' and the speeches and green bokays upon the coats of all the A. O. Aiches. A Britisher in Boston (I misforget his name) produced a crimson violet—or so the papers claim. And Burbank out in Frisco—Far Downer, through and through—turned out a prize posy of a pizen orange hue. But here's a bloom that's green, no less—pure green or I'm a cow. We'll drink a swig to Ireland's bloom. We will! Pour out! Here's how!"

The Mayo men were filled with joy; the county Clare men prancing; we needed no come-all-ye tunes to start the Tips a-dancing. John Marsden in Far Rockaway, a florist of renown had bred the green carnation. Thus came the tale to town. His foreman, White, confirmed the word, in language prompt and facile; clean emerald tints, so White declared, from root and stem to tassel.

"We've but a few, the foreman said, "and each one costs a heap. We dose the plants with chemicals—the price of drugs is steep. But I confess," said truthful White, "these gems in blended green first blossomed at the hothouse of Ward & Sons in Quees."

So off put our reporter man for Ward's far-reaching gardens, where hollyhocks and jonquils nod like floral Dolly Vardens.

The boss at Ward's is Hamilton, a person plump and pink. He heard the tale and cocked his head and slowly wunk an wink. "Oh yes," quoth he, "thyc're green indeed," a laugh shown in his eyes. "They grow up white; you make 'em green, with simple Diamond dyes."

"Ah, Paddy dear, and did you hear the news that's goin' round?" said Dan Ahearn, from Kerry, with a grin forboding frown. "I'll wear no dyed carnation. Mind that (you son-vergun. Suppose I wore one on parade. And suppose THE GREEN SHOULD RUN!"—N. Y. World.

Mrs. John Murray, who has been a frequent visitor to the family of Harry B. Morey, passed away in San Francisco last Wednesday after a short illness. Deceased was a popular young woman who was admired and respected by all who knew her. She leaves a young husband and baby boy to mourn her.

Charles Riley, the plumber, who was givne considerable notoriety by the San Francisco dailies during the fore part of the week for his misfortune in having his house blown down by the winds causing the death of an employe, was well known here. He worked at his trade on St. Patrick's Seminary buildings a short time ago.

B. Blanchard had a narrow escape from serious injury last Tuesday morning. He attempted to cross the track near the Palm hotel when the 9:30 flyer was approaching the depot. The gates went down as the train came along and caught him and his team within. The gateman's coolness prevented an accident. The gates were pulled up quickly extricating him. The engineer on the train seeing Mr. Blanchard's predicament pulled his brakes and slowed down the speed of the train.

A VINDICATION FOR DR. PIERCE.

Decision by the Supreme Court of the State Against the Ladies Home Journal.

A verdict has been rendered in favor of the plaintiff in the libel suit brought against the Ladies' Home Journal (published by the Curtis Publishing Co.) by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of which Dr. R. V. Pierce is president. The suit was brought by Doctor Pierce against the Curtis Publishing Co., for making false statements about one of his standard family medicines known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In the May number of the Ladies' Home Journal (1904), Mr. Edward Bol the editor, stated that Dr. Pierce's FavoritePrescription contained alcohol and some other harmful ingredients, and Dr. Pierce had in the action alleged that the defendant maliciously published this article containing such false and defamatory matter. Dr. Pierce further claimed that no alcohol is or ever was contained in his "Favorite Prescription," that said medicine was a vegetable preparation and contained no deleterious ingredients whatever; that Mr. Bok's statement, pretending to give some of the ingredients of said medicine, was wholly and absolutely false. During the trial the vice-president of the World's Dispensary Medical Association stated, that the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription were extracted from the following native roots: Golden Seal, Blue Cohosh, Lady's Slipper, Black Cohosh and Unicorn, by means of pure glycerine. He was asked how he knew, as a physician and experienced medical man, that the "Favorite Prescription" was a cure for the diseases peculiar to women, such as amenorrhea, dysmenorrhea, ante-version, retroversion, and he stated that he knew such was the fact because of his professional experience and the many thousands of women whose ills had been cured by this "Prescription." The vice-president, being asked to give his authorities, read from the standard works, such asthe United States Dispensary, the American Dispensary and many other standard medical books.

The retraction printed by the Curtis Publishing Company two months after the libelous statement appeared and nearly two months after the usit had been begun stated definately that analysies had been made at their request and that the "Favorite Prescription" did not contain either alcohol, opium or digitalis.

NEW CENTRAL THEATRE

San Francisco.

A thoroughly sensational and thrilling melo-drama will be the coming weeks attraction at the Central. "The House of Mystery." in four acts, by Landgon McCormick,is the fascinating title. The story is intensely interesting. It appeals directly to all classes. It tells of the perils of the working girl. In act second the machinery of the mysterious "Black Five" is set in motion. Act third discloses the Mystic Palace, the kingdom of the "Black Five," and in act four occurs the great deadlock scene, one of the most nerve-racking situations ever conceived in the brains of an ilnventive playwright. Mr. Elmer Booth will return to the cast after his brief vacation, the first in four consecutive weeks. Landers Stevens, Edna Crawford, Georgie Cooper and Marie Rowe will all have congenial roles. The introduction of vaudeville between the acts has made such a distinct hit that Manager Howell has decided to contin them, and for the coming week has engaged at enormous salaries, Sherida and Forest, formerly of Sheridan and Flynn, of "Down Went McGinty" fame McCloud and Melville, and the Onzos The popular priced family matinees, Saturday and Sunday, will be continued.

Lincoln J. Carter's great heart drama, "Too Proud to Beg," will follow.

THE MAJESTIC.

San Francisco

Saturday and Sunday nights and matinees will witness the final performances of the jolly Military comedy drama "The Bold Sojer Boy" and on Monday night, March 19, Nellie Stewart the wonderfully magnetic Australian actress and Musgrove's splendid dramatic company will begin a two week's farewell engagement in "Sweet Nell of Old Drury" with the same fine cast, beautiful scenery and magnificient musical setting which made its previous run one of the even in the history of theatricals in this city.

Since leaving here the company has been touring southern California with great success and Manager Bishop induced Mr. Musgrove to return for this extra engagement on account of the many demands at the box office known to the community makes a sacrifice for this attraction. It is a rare occurence that an artist entirely uncess and leaves an impression as did this charming stranger and we hope that next season she will return to us with a complete repertoire of her successful plays.

During Miss Stewart's engagement there will be Thursday "Pop" matinees at which the prices will range from $1 down to 25 c, and evening prices and Saturday matinee will be $1.50, $1, 50c and 25c.

Following this special engagement the Bishop players will appear in a fine revival of that sterling war play "Shenandoah."
